Peterborough County-City Health Unit to Host Free Prenatal Health Fair on May 3

Experience the “Empathy Belly”

Thursday, April 29, 2010, Peterborough

Expectant parents are invited to attend a Prenatal Health Fair hosted by the Peterborough County-City Health Unit at the Holiday Inn on Monday, May 3 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

This event is free and open to everyone with an interest in learning how to best prepare for having a baby, and what supports are available in the Peterborough area. The Prenatal Health Fair features interactive displays and demonstrations on a wide variety of topics such as:

- nutrition for baby and Mom
- becoming a parent
- baby’s development
- genetics
- working during pregnancy
- labour and delivery
- breastfeeding
- car seats
- immunizations

Highlights include the “empathy belly” and fathering displays. In addition, Service Canada will be on hand to discuss government benefits and services as well as how to register your newborn.

For more details, please call Anne Robinson at the Peterborough County-City Health Unit at 743-1000, ext. 265.
